Our Mission at Congregation Beth Sholom:

We remain committed to providing inspirational and vibrant contemporary services and programs for all regardless of personal Jewish education and personal levels of observance. We conduct traditional egalitarian services every Friday evening and Saturday services twice monthly. We embrace musical and rhythmical accompaniments. With strong rabbinical guidance and support, our priorities and philosophy are to maintain opportunities for Jewish education and spiritual growth within a friendly environment fostering Jewish community. We treat everyone with warmth and respect. We are very enthusiastic about our traditions and the opportunities Judaism offers to make life more spiritual and meaningful. We also recognize that our way is not the only path to a godly life. We reflect very warm accepting, personalized, and intimate bonds among the members of our Beth Sholom family.

RABBI'S COLUMN:

As Jews we are accustomed to being called the “People of the Book.” Actually, this term comes from Islam which used it to characterize the Jews because they had received and written down an earlier (before the Koran) revelation from God. The Book referred to is the Five Books of Moses.

Jews love to read, and many of us participate in Jewish-themed book clubs. For Greater Philadelphia Jews, the book chosen this year for “One Book One Jewish Community” is the Noa Tishby Israel book that I had suggested we all read.

For Jews everywhere in the world, the book of this month is the Haggadah. The word Haggadah means “telling,” and that is what we are meant to do— tell the story of our escape from slavery in Egypt. And especially, tell it to our children.

The Haggadah text is based on the seder service prescribed by the Mishnah (BT: Pesachim 10). Many scholars believe the seder was modeled on the Greek symposium, a banquet which included discussion, and conversation, and food. The particular foods and narrative relating to our story— eating of the matzah, marror, drinking four cups, and recital of the Exodus—were integrated into the seder banquet.

The Haggadah does not repeat the account in Exodus which stars Moses and God and tells the story chronologically. Instead, the Haggadah is a collection of prayers, Midrashic comments, and psalms. And Moses is absent.

Like my great uncle Moe, of blessed memory, we can read every word at high speed to get through it. Or we can take our time. After all, we do not have the Egyptians hot in pursuit. And if, indeed, the seder format is based on the Greek symposium, you can bet there was reclining, discussion, and intermissions throughout the evening while many courses were consumed. Before the actual seder we can develop our own reader’s guide to our book-of-the-month. There’s a lot of information available.

One question I am taking up in my next Moses class is why the Haggadah doesn’t just tell the story straight, following the Book of Exodus. What is the reason for its form? Maybe, to quote the Canadian communications theorist Marshall McLuan, the medium (in this case, the format) is the message. I leave it to you to figure out. Or you can come to the Moses class on Sunday, April 21.

A Zissen Pesach,

PRACTICAL PASSOVER PREPARATION 2024

April 18th and 19th before Shabbat kosher the kitchen for Pesach. Prepare to change your dishes, silverware, pots, pans, etc. Glass dishes and crystal can be used because they do not need to be kashered for Pesach. Just wash them before using.

Paper plates, plastic utensils, and disposable aluminum cookware are often used if you do not have Pesach dishes and cookware. Be sure to have dishtowels, potholders, oven mitts, matzah (kosher for Pesach matzah), dishwashing sponges or wipes, etc., set aside for Pesach-only use.

As for chametz (food not to be eaten on Pesach), you can lock up your chametz and “sell” it to Chabad at https://www.chabad.org/holidays/passover/sell\_chometz\_cdo/jewish/Sell-Your-Chametz-Online.htm

So much of Judaism is about sanctifying time (like the Sabbath). These eight days of Pesach are very special to our Jewish identity and we should mark them as different by observing as many requirements as we can.

April 21st – Sunday

Sunday evening, do your final search for chametz. This search is a ritual search called, “b’dekat chametz” (searching for chametz). In Eastern Europe the tradition was to use a feather and conduct the search by candlelight (a flashlight is safer). The last chametz is burned on Monday morning.

Blessings before the search for chametz: “Baruch Atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech ha-olam, asher kid’sha-nu b’mitz-vo-tav vi’tzee-va-nu al bee-ur chametz.”

“Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the Universe, who sanctified us by commanding us to remove all the chametz.”

Blessing after the search: “Kol cha-mee-rah va-cha-mee-ah d’-i-ka vir-shoo-tee, d’-la cha-mee-teih oo’d’-la va-a-ri-teih oo-d’-la ya-da-na lei, liv-teel v’-leh-heh-vei hef-keir k’af-ra d’-a-ra.”

“All chametz in my possession, which I have not seen and have not removed or of which I am unaware, is hereby nullified and ownerless as the dust of the earth.”

April 22nd– Monday

If you are a first-born, it is traditional to fast until sundown. But there is a widely practiced exemption. On the principle that fasting is prohibited on a joyous occasion, Judaism allows for anyone who attends a religious feast to forego fasting. It is customary to hold a celebratory meal on the completion of study of a tractate of Talmud, called a siyyum (conclusion). So, after the morning service on Erev Pesach, the rabbis initiated the practice of studying a portion of a Talmud tractate after morning services or talking about a Talmudic tractate they recently finished studying. All the firstborn and others are invited to be present for this siyyum which is followed by refreshments. This mitzvah meal negates the fast.

So, study (or listen to Torah), feast, and then you don't have to fast.

Burn all remaining chametz in the morning. At that time recite the passage declaring all chametz in your possession to be null and void.

Kol cha-mee-rah va-cha-mee-ah d'-i-ka vir-shoo-tee, da- cha-mee-teih ood'-la cham-mee-teih, d'-va-a-ri-teih ood'-la va-a-ri-teih, liv-teel v'-leh-heh-vei hef-keir k'-af-ra d'-a-ra.

“All chametz in my possession, whether I have seen it or not, whether I have removed it or not, shall be nullified and be ownerless as the dust of the earth.”

Additional information about the seder plate, traditional foods, etc., may be found in most Haggadot.

In the evening, First Seder.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings, Beth Sholom family,

Wow! March has been a whirlwind of special events at Congregation Beth Sholom. We started the Month with our beautiful Library Dedication on March 1st at Shabbat services led by Rabbi Peggy. The sanctuary was filled with the friends and family of Burt Brenman as well as public officials and other guests. All came together to honor Burt and celebrate his legacy. Thank you to Caroline for organizing this event and to Garth for his beautiful catering. You made this event extra special for Burt's family and the Congregation.

The following Shabbat we enjoyed the Rosh Chodesh Women's service led by Janet on Friday night. Kudos to all who participated.

On Saturday, Steve led a special "Story Tellers" Shabbat with Larry Koch. Larry entertained us with Jewish Folk tales. Some of the stories were poignant while others hilarious and all were thoroughly enjoyed. A luncheon followed the event. Thank you, Larry, for a wonderful afternoon.

Our next Shabbat service led by Barry, featured the Beth Sholom Choir. Your singing truly reflects your love of music and your hard work and dedication to our Shul. We appreciate you very much.

The Rabbi arrived on the 22nd for Shabbat. We had a busy weekend with Friday night and Saturday morning services. Congratulations to Nancy Frankl and Linda Roberts Mensh who read the Torah beautifully.

We had a great time celebrating Purim on Saturday evening. Guests arrived in costumes including Rabbi Peggy who welcomed us in a fabulous flamingo costume! We read the Megillah, sang songs, played games, and made a lot of noise. We noshed on hamantaschen following the Havdalah service. Thanks to our Purim decorators and clean-up crew for such a great job.

On Sunday, morning services continued with a morning minyan and a class led by Rabbi Peggy. Congratulations to Janet and Newton who were our Torah readers.

The final Shabbat service of the month will be led by Cantor George and Carole Mason. We look forward to another beautiful Shabbat together.

April begins with the Board meeting on the 1st followed by a blood drive at the Temple on April 2nd from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Blood donations are desperately needed. Please read the attached flyer and participate in this important endeavor.

There is still time to join us on our field trip to “The Tabernacle Experience” on Thursday, April 4th. Don’t miss this unique opportunity to explore a life size replica of the Tabernacle as described in the Torah. Refer to the flier for details about the trip and contact Newton Rennie if you wish to attend.

Trivia fans take note! We will be holding a trivia night at Beth sholom on Sunday evening beginning at 7pm. This event promises to be a fun-filled evening of friendly competition and lots of laughs. Keep posted for more details.

Our mural project will begin on Wednesday, April 17th at 1pm. Please see Linda’s article. Rabbi Peggy will join us the weekend before Passover for Shabbat services on Friday night and Saturday (Shabbat) morning. Please see her article about Practical Passover preparation to assist you during these busy weeks.

Looking back to March and forward to April it is amazing to see how much our Congregation does despite our small size. The answer is not a mystery. Because of our small numbers, each one of us is important. We all work together fulfilling many roles to keep our Temple active and vibrant. We function as a family. We take part in all aspects of Temple life, helping one another and working together. We need all of you to participate in any way you can. You can truly make a difference.

I wish you and your loved ones a beautiful Passover.

Prayers for Peace.

Sholom,

Congregation Beth Sholom

TREASURER'S MESSAGE

TREASURER'S MESSAGE

I want to thank everyone that has fulfilled their membership commitments and also to those that continue to do so to sustain the day-to-day operations of our synagogue. If there are any concerns or questions, please contact me.

Continue to bring your Redner's receipts into the synagogue. There is a basket at the window in the office. We receive a percentage of the total amount of purchases. Remember we need the entire receipt, don't tear any section off. Only by using your Redner's membership card will it register the save-a-tape amount. If not, then your receipt and all your efforts are invalid for this program. This has been a terrific fundraiser for the Congregation. These dollars make a wonderful addition to our income and support our charity donations.

Also, if you have any old eyeglasses, remember to bring them to the synagogue and put them in the box near the office. These will be collected by Clyde Bragg for the Lions Club. A great way to repurpose your old glasses for a great cause.

Stu Handler
Treasurer

New Misheberach List

Each Shabbat at Beth Sholom we sing the Misheberach song and pray for healing for those who are ill in our Congregation, families, and community. We read a list of the names that have been gathered over several years and also ask those in attendance for any additional names not on the list. The list is also posted.

Unfortunately, there are so many people that have been added to the list over the years that we no longer know who they all are and if they are still in need of healing.

We have decided that we will start a new Misheberach list beginning on April 1, 2024. If you or a loved one is ill, please call or email the office this month to be included on the new list. Of course, names can still be shared by those present at Services as well.

Thank you for your understanding.

A Message from the Vice President for Religious Education

Newton Rennie

VP of Adult Education

VP of Adult Education

April brings with it the much-anticipated observance of Pesach, which this year will fall during the last two weeks of the month. However, in the first week of April, members of Congregation Beth Sholom will be taking a trip to the “Tabernacle Experience” in Lancaster Pennsylvania on Thursday April 4th. We will carpool to the Mennonite Life Visitors Center to tour a full-sized replica of the Mishkan (Tabernacle), which is modeled on the dimensions and description provided in Exodus 35:5 - 38:20.

We will depart from the Synagogue at 9:15am, which, according to MapQuest, it is about a 2-hour drive. Once there, we will have a little time to decompress before the tour, which will begin at 12pm.

After the presentation we may browse the gift shop and view a movie about the local Mennonites.

The general information is as follows:

Address: 2215 Millstream Road, Lancaster PA 17602

Phone: (717)299-0954

Tickets: $11.00 each

The plan after will be to have lunch at one of the many eateries in the area and then explore a local Amish Market or the outlet mall. We should return to the Synagogue between 6pm and 7pm.

The Parasha reading group continues to meet on Wednesdays at 6pm on the synagogue zoom. This month of April we will read the parashot of: Shemini, Tazria, and Metzora, along with their accompanying haftorot. There is a special parsha reading for the Shabbat of April 27th since it is Chol Hamoed. As a result, there will be a break in the sequence which we will pick up on the first Wednesday in May.

Thank you

Newton Rennie

Keep Delaware Jewish History Alive

The Jewish Historical Society of Delaware's (JHSD), mission is to acquire, preserve, and publish material pertaining to the history of Jewish settlement and Jewish life in the state of Delaware.

Kent County has a rich history of Jewish settlement. Jewish farmers and local business owners moved to our area over 150 years ago and established a vibrant community in Dover and Kent County. Many of them were early members of Congregation Beth Sholom.

Long-time member Chazz Salkin, a member of the JHSD board, contacted us about an exciting project being undertaken by the JHSD. They are working on a statewide oral history project and want to be sure to interview long-time residents and families from our community.

Although many of you are new to the Dover area you can still be an integral part of this important project. JHSD is looking for interviewers. Many of those being interviewed are people you already know from the shul. The interviews will be recorded and will become part of the archives of our Jewish history in Delaware. The time commitment is minimal. Instruction and training will be provided. If you would like to learn more, be an interviewer or have a family story to share, please contact Gwen and she will forward your contact information to the project leaders at JHSD.

Our history is too important to be forgotten. Help us keep it alive for our children and generations to come.

Memorial Plaques

Our Memorial Wall is the rear wall of the main sanctuary. If you would like to remember a loved one with a permanent memorial plaque, please contact Religious Vice President Steve Schwartz. These take a few weeks to arrive. The cost is $450.00. If you wish, Steve will arrange with you to conduct an unveiling and pay homage to your relative at a subsequent Friday evening service. You may also choose to host the oneg in conjunction with the unveiling. In case you are unaware of the Yahrzeit list within the bulletin, if there is a plaque in memory of a relative, the board (Bd) and row (R) number has been listed for your convenience. No pl means there is no plaque.

Chesed and Misheberah information

If you hear or have knowledge of anyone who is in need of r'fuah sh'leyma, please contact the office and leave a message. We are trying to do more outreach and can only act when we are aware of the need. Names for the Misheberah list will be placed and read at services until we are notified differently. Please let us know when to remove the person from the list.

Donations to Congregation Beth Sholom

When donating to Congregation Beth Sholom, your generosity will be acknowledged with letters sent to the honorees. Schedule now to host an oneg for your important date(s) for the coming year. Reminders are published in the bulletin each month. It is customary to make a donation in memory of a relative listed in the Yahrzeit list. If we have missed any names of close family members, please let us know. Please contact the office and leave a message. Also, Rabbi Peggy maintains a confidential Rabbi's Discretionary Fund for special needs of members or charitable causes within our Jewish and secular community. You can specify your donation be applied to her fund and if you wish to direct that money, please contact Rabbi to discuss it with her.
