

All services this Shabbat are entirely on the rabbis' Zoom account this weekend.
The Congregation Beth Sholom will remain closed due to COVID.

FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

Congregation Beth Sholom

340 North Queen Street, Dover DE 19904

Hello Everyone,

This Shabbat, Parashat Behar (The Lord spoke to Moses on Mt. Sinai...), the Friday night service will begin at 7:00 PM. The rabbi will talk about Jewish Views on Abortion.

The Saturday morning service begins at 9:45 AM. The Torah will be read by the rabbi and the Rennies.

Discussion: Leviticus Chapter 25. What are the Jubilee laws? Are they practical? What is their purpose?

The Sunday morning service will begin at 9:30 AM.
The Sunday class will follow at 10:30 AM. We will continue our study of the Apocrypha by reading Bel and the Dragon in class. Please review chapter 6 of the Book of Daniel in advance. We will discuss dragons, idols, and midrash. For those in the class I am attaching an Introduction to Midrash that I used in a class some years ago. It will help the discussion if you read it in advance.
All services this Shabbat are entirely on the rabbis' Zoom account.

--

Rabbi Peggy Berman de Prophetis
Congregation Beth Sholom
Dover, DE 19901

PLEASE REFER TO THE EMAIL NOTICE TO ACCESS THE ZOOM MEETING

