Good afternoon, Beth Shalom family,

It was great to welcome Cantor George and Carole Mason back this past Friday evening to lead Shabbat Services. We are grateful to have such a wonderful couple as part of our CBS family. We celebrated their return as well as the anniversary of Debbie and Steve Weiner with a special Oneg in their honor. Mazel Tov!

Please tune into our Parsha Study tonight, as well as every Wednesday at 6:30 (zoom). Tonight's Parsha reading will be Tzav.

This Friday evening, Steve Schwartz returns to lead services. This Shabbat is known as Shabbat Hagadol (great Shabbat). At sundown, on Saturday, we will celebrate the first night (Seder Night) of Passover. Passover continues for eight days through April 20th. The synagogue kitchen will be closed during the holiday.

Pop up Food Drive! We are collecting unexpired canned and dry goods this Friday evening. Donate your Chametz and other canned goods to those in need. All donations will be brought to the Interfaith Food Pantry.

Our CBS Choir will be on hiatus during this Holiday time and will return for practice on Tuesday, April 29.

The Jewish Film Festival is coming to Rehoboth April 23-27. CBS members and friends are invited to share lunch and a movie on April 24th to enjoy the festival. Please see the attached flyer for more information.

Many thanks to Cindy, and everyone who contributed to the 2025 CBS Passover Cookbook. Please check it out and try some of the delicious recipes.

Lucy Mehl has once again created a beautiful Passover display in the foyer display cases. Thank you, Lucy, for beautifying the Synagogue with your artistic talents.

Save the Date! Join us for a covered dish Sabbath community meal on Friday, May 2nd at 5:30 pm. Services will follow at 7:00pm and will be led by Cantor George and Carole. See the attached flyer!

We continue today to mark 550 days and still counting. Many are still left in captivity, and the death toll continues to rise. We mourn the losses and pray for the return of the remaining hostages. We pray for the end of this war.

Best Wishes to all for a joyous Pesach Holiday.

With warm regards and prayers for peace,
Gwen Stubbols, President
