

Congregation Beth Sholom Weekly Newsletter

February 7, 2024

Good evening, Beth Sholom Family,

This past Shabbat, Barry Brill led a beautiful Friday night service. We celebrated our February Birthdays following services with a special Oneg in honor of all our February Birthdays. Join us each month as we celebrate the birthdays and anniversaries on the first Friday of each month.

Please do not forget to sign into Newton's weekly Parsha reading at 6 pm tonight on ZOOM.

Newton and Janet Rennie will be leading our Shabbat service this Friday evening, February 9, the start of Rosh Chodesh Adar. Steve Schwartz will lead a Shabbat morning service on February 10 at 9:45 a.m. Parsha for this week is Mishparim. Please join us! Services are held in person and on ZOOM.

This Tuesday, February 12th at 11:30, Beth Sholom will be hosting the Kent County Interfaith Alliance monthly meeting at the Synagogue. The group will be discussing the upcoming blood drive, Habitat for Humanity build as well as other local community endeavors. All are welcome to attend and find out what's going and how you could help.

Choir practice will resume on Tuesday evening at 6pm. We need new members. No audition necessary!

A Valentine's Day lunch will be held at Vincenzo's Restaurant at 12:00 noon on the 14th. Please RSVP to Gwen by 2/11 whose number is in the email. Join us on this day of friendship and love.

Later in the month we are looking forward to showing our monthly movie, "The Levys of Monticello" on February 21 at 2:00 pm. Popcorn provided! On February 25, as our Rosh Chodesh activity, we will be making masks for Purim.

Please plan to join our CBS family and honored guests as we lovingly dedicate our Burt Brenman Library. The dedication will follow Shabbat services on March 1 at 7:00 pm. Additional information is provided in the February CBS Bulletin. Please plan to attend this very special evening. You must call the office or email us to let us know you are attending.

Reminder: Rabbi Peggy will be holding a book discussion in April. The Rabbi has requested that we read "Israel: A simple Guide to the most misunderstood Country on Earth" written by Noa Tishby in preparation for the discussion. The book can be purchased on Amazon.

Wishing you all a wonderful week.

Prayers for Peace.
